DCI EXEC REG While acknowledging the differences in their systems and approaches to international issues, some greater understanding of the each side's view was achieved by the two leaders. They agreed about the need to improve U.S.-Soviet relations and the international situation as a whole

In this connection the two sides have confirmed the importance of an ongoing dialogue, reflecting their strong desire to seek common ground on existing problems.

They agreed to meet again in the mearest future. The General Secretary accepted an invitation by the President of the United States of America and the President of the United States accepted as invitation by the General Secretary of the Central Committee of the CPSU to visit the Soviet Union. Arrangements for end timing of the visits will be agreed upon through diplometic channels.....

In their meetings, agreement was reached on a number of specific issues. Areas of agreement are registered in the following pages.

SECURITY

The sides, having discussed key security issues, and conscious of the special responsibility of the USSR and the U.S. for maintaining peace, have agreed that a nuclear war cannot be won and must never be fought. Recognizing that any conflict between the USSR and the U.S. could have catastrophic consequences, they emphasized the importance of preventing any war between them, whether nuclear or conventional. They will not seek to achieve military superiority.

MUCLEAR AND SPACE TALES

The President and the General Secretary discussed the negotiations on nuclear and space arms.

They agreed to accelerate the work at these negotiations, with a view to accomplishing the tasks set down in the Joint U.S.-Soviet Agreement of January 8, 1985, namely to prevent an arms race in space and to terminate it on earth, to limit and reduce nuclear arms and embance strategic stability.

Moting the proposals recently tabled by the U.S. and the Soviet Union, they called for early progress, in particular in areas where there is occase ground, including the principle of 50% reductions in the nuclear arms of the U.S. and the USSA appropriately applied, as well as the idea of an interim INF agreement.

During the negotiation of these agreements, effective measures for verification of compliance with obligations assumed will be agreed upon.

RISK REDUCTION CENTERS

The sides agreed to study the question at the expert level of centers to reduce nuclear risk taking into account the issues and developments in the Geneva negotiations. They took estisfaction in such recent steps in this direction as the modernization of the Soviet-U.S. hotline.
